Malcom Chapman Talks Leadership at Library

Rapid City, S.D. – Jan. 24, 2011 – Leadership and business consultant, motivational speaker and former Rapid City alderman Malcom Chapman will be the featured speaker at the Rapid City Public Library's upcoming Community Voices Lecture. On Thursday, Feb. 3 from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Chapman will discuss building health communities and why leadership skills are important.

Chapman conducts seminars and speeches nationwide and has motivated thousands toward peak performance and high achievement. He started his professional sales career after leaving the service as a U.S. Marine Corps Captain. In 1996 he started the Chapman Group and in 1999 he was one of the founders of the Black Hills Society for Training and Development. Chapman is active in the Rapid City community serving on several boards and championing issues. Community leadership, affordable housing and creating awareness about the importance of early childhood education are currently at the top of his list.

This event takes place at the downtown library located at 610 Quincy Street. Cookies and coffee will be provided. Find out more about library resources and events by visiting the Rapid City Public Library website at www.rapidcitylibrary.org.

###

The Rapid City Public Library has served the Rapid City area since 1879, and now has two locations, the downtown library at 610 Quincy Street and the north library within General Beadle Elementary School at 10 Van Buren St. Both offer print and electronic resources for adults, young adults and children as well as computers and Internet access and a variety of programs and events. In March 2008, USA Today named the Rapid City Public Library's downtown library as one of the nation's 10 greatest places to "Find a Nook and Read a Book."
